Breakfast on board the steamboat; passing down the Potomac, in view of Mount Vernon. by daylight.

Passengers arriving in Baltimore by the morning line from Philadelphia, gain nothing by going on immediately by the Bay Line, and may as well remain over in Baltimore until 6 a. m., or go on to Washington at 5 p. m., and remain until 9 a. m., the next morning, as they are obliged to lie over in Petersburg, if they arrive there earlier than the Great Mail Line of the next morning, and are subjected to all the uncertainties and discomforts of a night on the Bay, instead of passing an agreeable one in Baltimore or Washington, without arriving any sooner, if as soon, at the end of their journey.

Passengers going to Washington by the train of 10 p.m., are taken, if they desire it, by the Company's Omnibus, at once, without charge, from the Washington depot to the Potomae steamboat, where they lodge, free of charye, and may lay over, (if they desire to do so.) with their through tickets, for a few days, at the following places, viz: Washington, Richmond, Petersburg, and Weldon.

Omnibuses are provided by the companies on this Line at Washington, Richmond, and Petersburg, by which passengers and their baggage are conveyed between the depots in those places, free of all expense.

tion of its system, and gratuitous test of its records of the standing and responsibility of traders in the U. States.

Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past gran, to open offices in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long established offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer ficilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.

We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territorics, Canada, Engisnd, Ireiand, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.

Heving full lists and reports of nearly all the Attorneys in the United States, we are at all times prepared to furnish you, gratuitously, the names of good and responsible lawyers in any part of the United States and Canadas.

Connected with our Agency is a Commissioner for nearly all the States, who is enabled to afford every facility and legal form for preparing accounts, &c., for immediate use, thereby avoiding a delay often fatal to the collection of a debt.

NLARGED AND IMPROVED, compiled chiefly from the Magnum Totius Latinitatis Lexicon at Facciolati and Forceilini, and the German works of Scheller and Lucemann, embracing, also, the classical distinctions of words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

nemann, embracing, also, the classical distinctions of words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Cherromiant's with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render its recommendation superfluous; but attention to this new edition is predecessors of the distinguished favor which the work has hitherto received.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS. OWING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the crid is not yet." the reading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, digidanted, and necessarily imperied records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever be furnished by the historian at a luture day. Whoever reads these periodicis obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following it their list viv.

following is their list, viz: THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE KDINGURGH REVIEW,
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINGUEGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radiesl; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Keview" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastics' movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand-departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-inw, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofer issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, imme-In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately
